Facts

AHERUSIA were formed by Voreas Faethon in Athens in 1997. During that first period of Aherusia, Voreas Faethon was the main vocalist and the bass player. The band's aesthetic principles which were forged by the combination of the traditional Hellenic sound, the progregorian European folkloric tunes and the music manifest of Majestic Black Metal, remain unchanged. In 1999, AHERUSIA performed some shows and released independently the "Whispers of Moon" mini LP. During 2000 - 2003 the band's activity was frozen due to line-up changes. Eventually in 2004, the Aherusian dawnhost gathered again. On November 2008 AHERUSIA entered the Devasoundz studios (Athens) for the recording of the debut album "And The Tides Shall Reveal The Traces". Sound engineering was made by Jon Simvonis, edited by Fotis Benardo (SEPTICFLESH), Jon Simvonis (DESCENDING) and George Emmanuel (VALET PARN). Finally, on April 23, 2009 AHERUSIA signed contract with Emotion Art Music Ltd and the debut album "And The Tides Shall Reveal The Traces", was released on October 2009, in Greece and Cyprus and on November 6th, 2009 the album will be released worldwide. Nevertheless, AHERUSIA are also preparing their second album titled: "As I Cross The Seas Of My Soul" .
