Facts

LifeCode was a project in 1999, with Nikitas L.C. (vocals), Spyros (drums) and Evgenios (bass) as the first three members. Six months later, Stathis (guitars) joined them and the band continued rehearsing. All members had already a successful background from their previous bands and LifeCode gained prestige quickly. So, LifeCode recorded a demo CD including 3 tracks. These tracks, among other unrecorded, marked a new departure of LifeCode in live stages (Rodeo, Aera, Odd, etc.) and different festivals, where the band promoted this demo CD for free. The departure of Evgenios in 2003 didn't stop them from live appearances until 2 years later, when Stathis left the band too. Then, LifeCode decided to hit the studio and record the first full studio album with 12 tracks. Van (bass, keys and production) and Antonis (guitars) joined LifeCode to record this album and during the progress of it, Sotiris (guitars) joined too. The albums' recordings ended in 2008. In the meantime LifeCode signed contract with Emotion Art Music Ltd and "Follow Your Hate" was released on May 2009, in Greece and Cyprus.
